불맛

BULMAT

Fire & Smoke

Smoke is more than flavour—it's theatre.

From sizzling oils to open flames, Korean chefs use fire to create aroma, depth and the unmistakable character known as bulmat.

HOT CHILLI OIL RAMYEON

Dry-tossed ramen finished with a ladle of scorching chilli oil.

16.90

Inspired by Chef Jung Ji Sun's smoking-oil technique
(Culinary Class Wars).

Garlic

Garlic is the heart of Korean cooking.

Whether roasted, fermented or freshly minced, it brings warmth, richness and depth to countless everyday dishes.

프리미엄

Indulgence

Luxury isn't always about complexity.

Sometimes, it's simply pairing exceptional ingredients with the comfort foods we already love.

AFFORDABLE
LUXURY

WAGYU BULDAK RAMYEON

Seared wagyu slices over glossy Buldak noodles in a creamy chilli-mayo sauce.

29.90

Inspired by the viral TikTok trend of luxury beef with instant noodles.

길거리 음식

G I L G E O R I E U M S I K

Street Food

Korean street food is made to be enjoyed fresh from the fryer.

Crispy, comforting and full of energy, it's a delicious reflection of Korea's vibrant food culture.
